Housing Market Reinvestment Program

1. To create legislation establishing the Housing Market Reinvestment Program (HMRP). The purpose of HMRP is to create a grant to new home buyers in the City of Massillon, Ohio. The details of the HMRP are as follows:

- A. The current vacant foreclosure bond payment by foreclosing entities will be subject to an additional 10% fee above and beyond the current administrative as referenced in Chapter 1323 "Foreclosure Property Registry". The additional 10% fee will go toward the funding of grants for home buyers that qualify under the HMRP guidelines. This shall be retroactive to January 1, 2016.
- B. Homebuyers must remain in the primary residence and satisfy one (1) of the following:
 - a) Qualifying home buyers will be any home buyer in the City of Massillon, Ohio who is purchasing a home in the designated target neighborhoods as outlined in the agreement for Community Development Block Grant funding;
 - b) Qualifying home buyer will be any home buyer that purchases a home that was a foreclosed home upon the time of purchased and property was not foreclosed upon the individual or direct relation to the individual that is currently purchasing the home.
- C. Any qualifying home buyer shall be able to qualify to receive HMRP funds for each of the first three (3) years immediately following the purchase of their qualifying home. This will depend on the availability of funds with the potential preference going toward one (1) year applicants.
- D. The amount to be provided by HMRP to qualifying home buyers shall not exceed the total property tax assess and paid on the home on an annual basis of $1k, the lesser of the two.
