Therefore, you must consult the zoning code, which changes from time to time, prior to proceeding with any regulated conduct. Violations of these restrictions may only be pursued by a lot owner of owners. The City cannot enforce them. However, either the City or a lot owner can request enforcement of the zoning code.

E. Invalidity or unenforceability of any one or more of the provisions herein by judgment or court order shall in no manner affect any of the other provisions hereof, and such other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

F. In the event of a violation of any of the restrictions herein contained, the Developer reserves the right unto themselves, their successors or assigns, for so long as the Developer owns any part of the premises, the right (but not the duty) to enforce said restrictions by the appropriate legal action against any person or persons who violate or attempt to threaten to violate said restrictions; or to enter upon the property where such violation exists and summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the owner thereof, any structure, use or condition that may be or exist thereon contrary to these restrictions. The Developer shall not be deemed guilty of trespassing for such entry, abatement, or removal. Failure of the Developer, to enforce any of the restrictions contained herein, shall in no event be construed to be in any manner a waiver of acquiescence in, or consent to a further of succeeding violation of these restrictions. However, the failure, refusal or neglect of the Developer to enforce said restrictions or to prevent violations thereof shall in no event make the Developer liable for such failure, refusal, or neglect to any third person or persons.

G. It is hereby expressly understood that a five (5) foot wide easement on the side and rear of each lot and a ten (10) foot wide easement at the front of each lot which shall be used for installing, operating, maintaining, and servicing pole lines, cables, and conduits for the Electric Company, the Telephone Company and Cable Vision franchise and other public utilities, shall be imposed, excepting, however, the exterior boundaries of this allotment, in which case they shall be ten (10) feet in width.
